Right to Education in Republic India : Myth or Reality

Orange City College of Social Work, Nagpur was founded on 10th December, 1999 on the eve of International Human Rights day. It is located in the circumference of 7 kms from 'Zero mile' and 14 kms from Deekshabhoomi. The College was established with the aim of providing Social Work Education, Social Mobilization & Social Sensitization among the student, the future of India. The College has been accredited with 'B' Grade by NAAC, Bangalore.

The seminar cell of Orange City College of Social Work, Nagpur is organizing a one day International Seminar on "RIGHT TO EDUCATION IN REPUBLIC INDIA: MYTH OR REALITY" on 24th July, 2016 to ponder over the crucial issue and to come up with a probable solution against the problem. The seminar would try to fathom the issues pertaining to the problematic scenario of the implementation of Right to Education in India against the mounting cost of and the prevailing commercialization in the education system from the very elementary level. The problem of commercialization in Education is somewhere a major reason behind the increasing drop- out rate among the students as well.
